

EVERYONE
can do something

Pure Religion Sunday
November 9, 2025

Pure Religion Sunday, previously known as Orphan Sunday, is an annual event celebrated in thousands of churches across over 50 countries to raise awareness and support for orphans and vulnerable children around the world. It is typically observed on the second Sunday in November.

The purpose of Pure Religion Sunday is to encourage churches and communities to stand up for orphans, raise awareness about their needs, and mobilize support through prayer, fundraising, and advocacy.

What can you do?

PRAY

- Pray for children and families in hard places.
- Pray for God to move in your heart and church to obey His call to care for orphans and vulnerable children.

SPONSOR

- Invite families from your church who sponsor a child to share testimonies.
- Request sponsorship cards from Lifesong Canada to promote child sponsorship.

VOLUNTEER

- Volunteer with local child welfare agencies.
- Find a family who is fostering or has adopted and support them.
- Give of your time as the Lord leads you.
